We dedicate this, the third volume of the COMARY, to Sister Margaret Loyola in an effort to repay the debt of gratitude we owe her. In six years as principal of Newman High School her tenure was marked by progress and efficiency. Although Sister is no longer at our school, the memory we have of her serves as an inspiration and a guide to us.

The leaves of autumn lend atmosphere for study as a group of seniors gather at Sinissippi Park

Here We Go Again! Back to the Old Grind

On a certain beautiful September morn, sorrow mounted in the hearts of the faculty of Newman. The school year of 1952-53 dawned. After attending Mass, the students returned to school, and they started the job of buying books and getting schedules straightened out. For the seniors, it will be a finale, for the freshmen a new experience begins.

Students return to school after Mass of Holy Ghost.

Get your yearbook. Dick Cathelyn has his!

Bob Hutten can't get Sister Clarice to reduce his fees.

Culinary Activities in the G. A. A.

What's wrong, sophs? No appetite?

Everyone gets into the act!

A few knots to be untied. Barb Hutten seems to be having difficulty!

Matt Grennan, guest speaker at the Father-Daughter Banquet, told of his personal experiences as the father of nine daughters.

After Newmanites have had time to review events of the summer and upperclassmen have cast quizzical glances at new recruits, it is finally decided the freshmen will be welcome additions to the G.A.A.

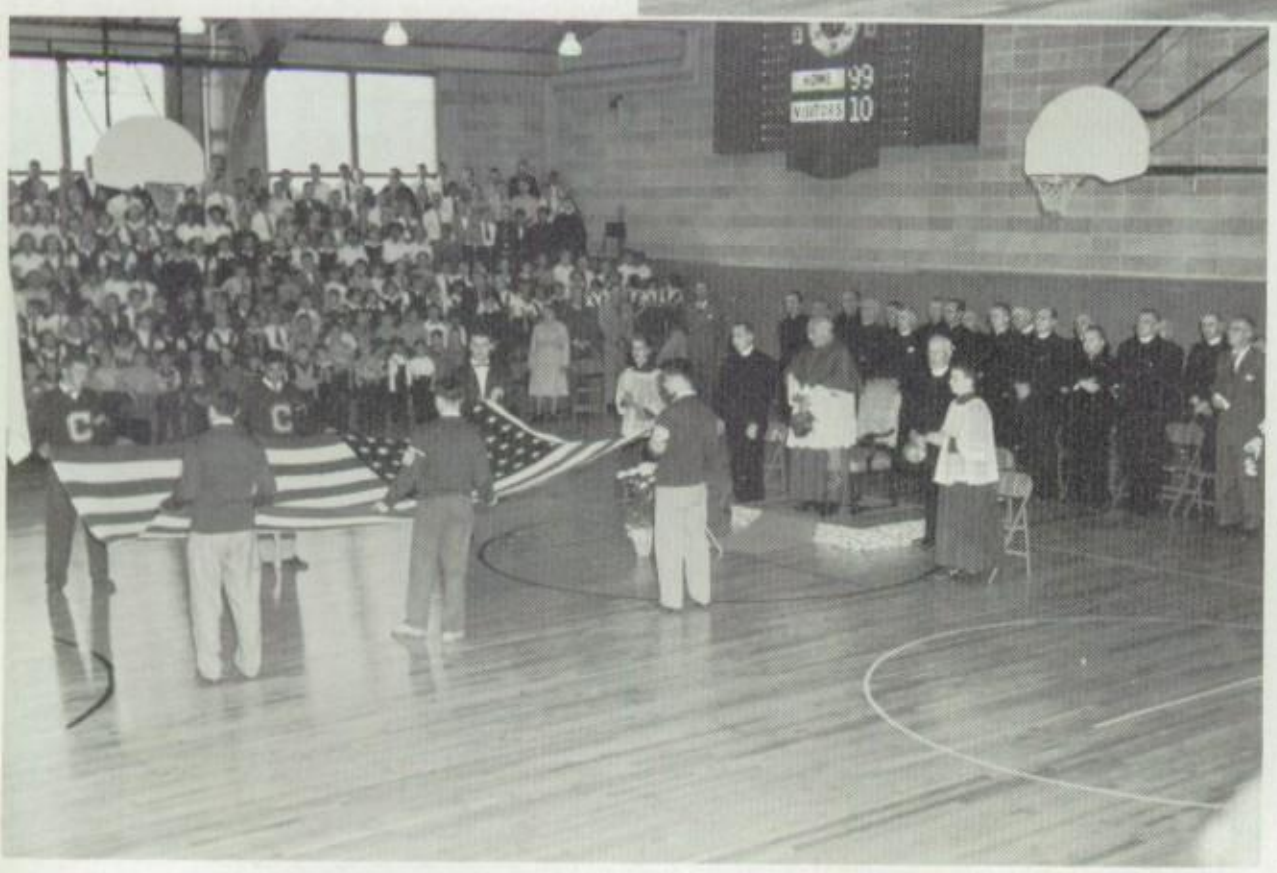
A Dream Comes True

Bishop John J. Boylan officially dedicates Newman Center.

The Newman Center was dedicated Monday, October 27, 1952. It houses a gym, library, cafeteria and recreation room. To date the gym is completed and is equipped with six baskets, modern lighting and score board and bleachers.

Some years after the construction, our school changed to Newman High School. Bishop Boylon and Monsignor Burns altered the name at the Newman Center dedication ceremony.

Mayor Wetzel addresses friends and student body.



Members of the senior class display the flag donated by the Women's Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars and presented by Mrs. Bernard Droste.

On the lighter side, tea is served to the new Sodalists by M. Stein, and M. Weaver in the recreation room of the Newman Center.

Seniors and and Dance

Toastmaster Stanley Tehan called upon the various guests to say a few words on this pleasant occasion.

Bob Kay, president of the senior class, expressed the gratitude of the seniors to the junior class for the banquet and prom. He also traced briefly the senior history in the school during four years.

The invocation was given by Father Ambre who commented on the nearing departure of the class of 1953.
